Introduction and withdrawal of Rs 2,000 note cast doubt on integrity, stability of India's currency: Chidambaram

Mumbai: Senior Congress leader P Chidambaram on Monday said the introduction of Rs 2,000 note and its subsequent withdrawal have cast doubt on the integrity and stability of the Indian currency.

country must give rise to a tide that will lift all boats. In that view, the NDA government has totally failed in the last nine years, he said.

Chidambaram said. The first three quarters of 2022-23 recorded growth rates of 13.2, 6.3 and 4.4 per cent, a declining trend. The present situation is a far cry from the average of nine per cent growth rate that marked the boom years between 2004 and 2009, he said.

programmes, he said. The opposition is compelled to raise very serious questions about raging unemployment, persistent inflation, widening inequalities and stumbling welfare programmes. The all India unemployment rate is, currently, 7.45 per cent and the labour force participation rate is about 48 per cent.

intimidation and slapping of false cases. The Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP) and/or its affiliated organisations have fuelled these trends with hyper-nationalism, vigilantism, religious intolerance, vandalism, hate speeches and extra-judicial actions, he charged, adding that "bulldozer justice has replaced natural justice."

remained silent while the situation in the country has deteriorated year after year," he said. Chidambaram also said the outcome of the recently held Karnataka Assembly elections demonstrated how wrong the prime minister, his government and his party were in their assessment of the political and social situation of the state. The Congress returned to power in Karnataka after a gap of five years by defeating the BJP.
