In Kalyan East, supporters of Shinde group beat up BJP workers

Kalyan:
It has once again come to light today that the BJP and Shiv Sena Shinde group are fighting in Kalyan. The BJP workers who were painting the BJP symbol on the wall in Kalyan East Chakki Naka area were brutally beaten up by the supporters of the Shinde group corporator in protest. BJP has also taken an aggressive stance after this incident. BJP's Kalyan East Mandal President Sanjay More has warned the Shiv Sena Shinde group that they should restrain their corporators or else we will give up. He said that he will file a complaint in Kolshewadi police station in this regard. Although the Shiv Sena Shinde group and BJP leaders are saying that there is confusion in the alliance in the state, it is seen that there is a rift between the Shiv Sena Shinde group and the BJP in the Kalyan East Assembly Constituency. In Kalyan Chakki Naka Hill area, BJP workers started painting the BJP party symbol on the walls. Meanwhile, supporters of Shinde group corporator Mallesh Shetty came to the place. They opposed the BJP workers and brutally beat three to four workers with kicks. BJP city president Sanjay More has alleged that BJP workers were beaten up only on the request of Shiv Sena corporator Mallesh Shetty. At this time, BJP Kalyan East Mandal President Sanjay More has warned the Shiv Sena Shinde group that they should restrain their corporators or else we will give up. The workers along with the BJP city president said that they will enter the Kolshewadi police station and file a complaint in the Kolshewadi police station about the incident .
